HOMEWORK after 13th lecture

1) Create new Java project.

2) Declare and initialize two double variables (input from console).

3) Use every arithmetic operation on those variables and print out result.

4) Print out the largest result.

5) Declare and initialize string variable (input from console).

6) Print out lenght of string and square root of that lenght.

7) Declare long variable (input from console).

8) Print out value and cast it to string and than print out lenght of string.

9) Push homework to Git.